

BURNS BIBLE BOWL NEWS

FOURTH YEAR: BEST YEAR YET

The young people from Burns Church of Christ made their fourth appearance at Sycamore Church of Christ's Bible Bowl in Cookeville, Tennessee their best one...yet!

Every student worked hard and did better than ever before, and their hard work paid off! Pre-tests and post-tests confirmed that these students really know the Gospel of John.

Team #9, a "Senior" team consisting of David Jack, Leighann Jack, Destiny Gabriel, and Kaiya Gabriel did a phenomenal job. They scored 4,670 points out of a possible 5,000, putting them in 3rd place out of all the teams that traveled to Cookeville. They advanced to the semi-finals called the Sweet 16.

Individually, our kids did great, too. Kaiya Gabriel scored 97, enough to place her in 4th place of all of the juniors. David Jack scored a 97, high enough to place him in 3rd place of all the seniors. Destiny Gabriel scored a 96, putting her in 4th place in the senior division. Leighann Jack did great with a 90, enough to place her in the top 10%, and Syvanna Gabriel just barely missed the plaques, with a score of 89.

OUR STUDENTS

David Jack, Destiny Gabriel, Leighann Jack, Nicole Hill, Kaiya Gabriel, Syvanna Gabriel, Bridgett Eleazer, Cory Hall, Myka Endsley, and Chazz Jackson all represented Burns with their hard work and study for this year's Bible Bowl program.

This was the first year for Bridgett, Cory, and Nicole. Unfortunately for Nicole, since she's a senior at DCHS, it is her last year...as a student. We hope she'll be back as a helper next year!

BIGGEST BIBLE BOWL EVER

Did you know that this year's Bible Bowl was the biggest? Burns had 10 students studying on two teams. Sycamore reported that there were 492 teams of 4 students present, a total of 2,000 contestants.

In addition, there were at least 2,000 parents, coaches, score-keepers, and spectators cheering on the winners – everyone who learned from God's word.

Our students had more than 90 pages of worksheets, not counting tests twice a week, and fill-in-the-blanks for the entire book of John or the countless hours of listening to CDs of our men reading the book aloud. Way to work!
